9-9:50 AM El Sistema: Music Changing Lives and Communities Sierra Ballroom A
Daniel Berkowitz, Manager, Youth Orchestra LA
33 years ago in a parking garage in Caracas, Venezuela, Dr. José Antonio Abreu gathered together 11 children to play music. El Sistema was born. The movement has spread around the world, bringing music to hundreds of thousands of underserved children, demonstrating the power of ensemble music to dramatically change lives and transform communities. El Sistema USA is a support and advocacy network for people and organizations inspired by Venezuela's monumental music education program.

10-11 AM Exhibits open Sierra Ballroom BCD

11:10 AM-Noon Breakout Sessions (Note that #3 is a morning-only session)

#1 – Strategic Purchasing: The Big Bang Theory for Your Bottom Line Clubroom
Bob Kohl, Long & McQuade Music & Alan Friedman, CPA, Friedman, Kannenberg & Co, PC
Extra discounts, complimentary products, extended dating, early pay rebates, free freight, return privileges – there are so many opportunities and incentives to get a great deal. But deciding which option is best for your business can feel as risky as investing in the stock market. From stock orders to new issues, publisher pre-packs to pre-publication promotions, Alan and Bob will help you analyze the risks and rewards of smart purchasing decisions. Whether your business is a single location or a multi-store chain, you'll come away with purchasing strategies and inventory management tools to give you a bigger bang for your buck.

#2 – From Brick & Mortar to Click & Mortar Hiro
Antonio Ferranti, Alfred Music Publishing

#3 – Partners In Education: Redefining the Teacher-Dealer Dynamic Salon 6A/B
James Harding, Director of Marketing, Gist Piano Center
As schools all across the nation cut funding for music education, it's more critical than ever that local music stores work closely with the music teachers in their area to produce the next generation of musicians. That's why Gist Music developed the "Partners In Education Program." PIE is a true partnership among the local music store, piano teachers, students and music-related community organizations that enhances the teaching experience, provides students with meaningful musical memories, and give local families the information they need to make the best decisions about their musical investments.

- Noon-1:10 PM Lunch/RPMDA Annual Business Meeting Ballroom A
- 1:15-2:15 PM Future View, Kevin Cranley, NAMM Chairman, Moderator Ballroom A
What will the print music industry look like in five years? Where will print retailers fit in? What do all of us need to be doing now to prepare ourselves? Kevin will quiz an expert panel of retailers and publishers for predictions to help us steer our businesses toward a future of profit and sustainability.
- 2:20-4:20 PM Exhibits Open
- 4:30-5:20 PM Repeat breakout sessions #1 and #2 (#3 is an afternoon-only session)
- #3 – There’s No Business Like Your Business: 5 Strategies to Attract & Retain Customers for Life Salon 6A/B
Danny Rocks, The Company Rocks, LLC
Do you want to attract more customers? Do you want to attract customers who will return to your store for all of their musical needs? Of course you do, but how? By learning to be more attractive to both current and future customers. Danny will share five winning strategies to help you attract and retain customers for life. These are the 5 strategies that all successful businesses implement. You will leave this session with an action plan for success!
- 6-9:30 PM Special event! An evening of food, fun and music hosted by Alfred Music Publishing Co.

Friday, May 4

- 7:30-8 AM Continental Breakfast Sierra Ballroom A
- 8:00-9:10 AM Best Ideas, Kevin Cranley, Willis Music, Emcee Sierra Ballroom A
The perennial favorite session of RPMDA conventions, where members share their best ideas in only two minutes, both for fun and to compete for the title of Best Idea 2012. What you learn here could change the way you do business and pay for your investment in coming to the convention!
- 9:15-11:00 AM Exhibits Open
- 11:10-noon Breakout Sessions
- #1 – Twitter Made Simple Clubroom
Kelly Flint, Regional Development Director, Constant Contact
Kelly has helped thousands of small businesses, associations, and nonprofits develop and implement effective online marketing strategies. In her educational and entertaining presentations, Kelly shares tools, resources, and strategies to help small businesses and nonprofits maximize Social Media and Email Marketing.
- #2 – What NOT to Display! Hiro
Maribeth Barrons, Hal Leonard Corporation
In this lively, interactive presentation, print music industry veteran Maribeth Barrons will cover the merchandising choices often made by retailers and some quick, easy and free (yes, free!) fixes to increase your revenues and revitalize the shopping experience in your store. Bring photos of your least favorite areas of your retail center and learn how to avoid or fix the three most commonly made mistakes of music merchandising. You’ll learn how to eliminate decades of display deficits and outfit your store in 21st century retail chic, without traveling to 5th Avenue or paying a 5th Avenue price tag!
- #3 – I Wish I Knew Then What I Know Now: Beyond the Basics Salon 6A/B
Don Langlie, Poppler’s Music
As employees, we are quickly taught the basics of internal systems (computers, phones, filing and order processing). But as owners, we suddenly expect our employees to have a much deeper understanding of salesmanship, inventory management, promotion and product display without the same kind of intense, objective instruction. This session will discuss the mindset and insight necessary for employees to "look at the big picture" and increase their effectiveness in the print music business.
